WHAT IS EKAL?

Ekal - bridge between village & city

Ekal is working to bring social change along with nation building – Educated India, Healthy India, Self-reliant India, Aware India, Drug-free India, Organized India, Safe India, Harmonious India.

Today India is surrounded by problems like conversion, Naxalism, Maoism, terrorism, migration from villages to cities, illiteracy, disease, poverty etc., Ekal is working as a sentinel to overcome these problems.

Ekal is a Brahmastra -

1. The Ekal model is based on the philosophy of Swami Vivekananda, social harmony, Inspired by Dr. B.R. Ambedkar's principles of equality and Mahatma Gandhi's rural development model. The objective of the Ekal movement is to help eliminate illiteracy and adopt a holistic approach to the social and economic development of rural and tribal India.

2. Ekal Abhiyan is the only organization in the world which, along with primary education, also sows the seeds of moral values and cultural education in its students. Due to which, at an early age, the ability to recognize mistakes develops in them.

3. Mission - Overall development of remote and forest dwelling villages through literacy, economic development and empowerment.

4. Objective - Nation building through five-faceted schemes – Primary and moral education, health, skill development, awareness and values.

5. Establishment - Ekal Abhiyan was established in the year 1988-89.

6. Inspiration - Swami Vivekananda – If children cannot go to school, schools must go to them.

7. Founder - Late Sh. Madan Lal Aggarwala

Founder Member – Ma. Sh. Shyam Ji Gupt, Prof. Manju Srivastava and other members.

WHAT IS CSR ?

"Businesses need to go beyond the interest of their companies to the communities they serve"
– Ratan Tata

Corporate Social Responsibility (CSR) means that in the normal course of business, a company does things that help society and the environment instead of hurting them. Companies operating under section 135 of the Act are mandated to allocate a minimum of 2% of their average net profits over the last three financial years for Corporate Social Responsibility (CSR) endeavours.

Companies failing to meet the spending requirements facing a penalty of twice the mandated transfer amount, capped at one crore rupees. Recently the Ministry of Corporate Affairs (MCA) imposed a penalty of Rs. 1.08 crore on a private limited company for failing to utilize its Unspent Corporate Social Responsibility (CSR) funds.

Why Us?

- We work on unique and great method of One Teacher School which makes us standout from others, cost effective and result oriented.
- We tick all the boxes of certifications which are required and mandatory to receive CSR funds.
- Having partnered with more than 350 corporate & PSUs, we have passed through the most rigorous due-diligence processes instituted by them including ONGC, IRFC BPCL, SBI Capital Markets Ltd, CONCOR, IGL, GAIL, IIDL, Haldirams and KEI Industries Ltd. making it one of the best NGOs for corporate social responsibility.
- We've added a feather to our cap with NGO Grading of 1A reflecting Highest Delivery Capability & High Organizational Capability by Care Edge.
